ELMER BANCORP, INC.

April 23, 2021

On behalf of our Board of Directors, we are pleased to present our 2020 Annual Report. Below is a recap of events in 2020.

- While 2020 presented many challenges as a result of the COVID-19 coronavirus pandemic, our staff did an outstanding job in providing the same quality service to our customer base through the drive-up service and by appointment, when necessary. We are also pleased to report that we were able to maintain our staffing levels, keeping everyone employed during these trying times which enabled us to assist our business customers through our participation in the government stimulus programs. We are very thankful for the outstanding efforts of the entire team.

- Elmer Bancorp's net income was $1.469 million for the year ended 2020 compared to $2.067 million for the year 2019. Earnings were significantly impacted by a year-over-year increase in the loan loss provision of $732,700 reflecting the uncertainties surrounding the coronavirus impact on our business customers. Other factors impacting earnings included higher employment costs, professional fees, data processing expenses, lower service charge fee income and a lower interest rate environment in 2020.

- As a result of the Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) and other government stimulus efforts, our balance sheet numbers showed significant growth. As participants in the PPP program, The First National Bank of Elmer approved over $32.0 million in PPP loans to over 250 local businesses customers which assisted in saving over 4,000 jobs in the communities we serve. In addition, during 2020, over 215 customers had requested loan payment deferrals or payments of interest only on loans totaling $94.4 million in accordance with the Coronavirus Aid Relief and Economic Security Act (CARES Act). At December 31, 2020, none of the Company's customers remained in deferment and all have resumed contractual monthly payments.

- Elmer Bancorp's total assets were $330.4 million at December 31, 2020, an increase of $44.6 million over December 31, 2019. Core assets (excluding PPP related assets) surpassed the $300 million plateau ending the year at $306.3 million, an increase of $20.5 million over year-end 2019. Total loans were $279.4 million at December 31, 2020, $36.1 million higher than December 31, 2019. Core loans (excluding PPP related balances) totaled $255.3 million, $12.0 million higher than year-end 2019, representing a 4.9% increase. Deposits totaled $300.4 million at December 31, 2020, an increase of $43.2 million from the December 31, 2019 level of $257.2 million.

- As more and more New Jersey residents continue to be vaccinated, we look forward to a more normal working environment. The Bank has continued to strive to be involved and supportive of many civic and charitable organizations. Our hope is to soon be back to in-person visits with our clients, friends, and neighbors. As we dealt with the COVID-19 pandemic, The First National Bank of Elmer was honored to be selected as the "Best Community Bank" by SJ Magazine in 2020 and our CEO, Brian W. Jones was recognized as one of 2020 "Top CEO's" by the same publication.

- Shareholders' equity at December 31, 2020 totaled $28.2 million, an increase of $1.4 million over year-end 2019. Book value per share at December 31, 2020 was $24.55 per common share compared to $23.32 per common share at December 31, 2019.

- The First National Bank of Elmer's Tier 1 Risk Based Capital Ratio was 12.52%, well above the 6.00% minimum capital requirement. The Bank was categorized as well-capitalized under the regulatory framework.

We very much appreciate our loyal customer base, our team members and our shareholders for their continued support during these unprecedented times. Through it all, Elmer Bancorp remains strong and will continue to respond well to the challenges presented. Thank you all for your continued support.

Respectfully,

Cindee F. Low
Chairman of the Board

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Board of Directors and Shareholders
Elmer Bancorp, Inc.

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying consolidated statement of financial condition of Elmer Bancorp, Inc. and subsidiaries, which comprise the consolidated statements of financial condition as of December 31, 2020 and 2019; the related consolidated statements of income, comprehensive income, changes in shareholders' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended; and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Elmer Bancorp, Inc. and subsidiaries as of December 31, 2020 and 2019, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the years then ended, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Operations

Elmer Bancorp, Inc., (the "Corporation") is a bank holding company incorporated in the State of New Jersey.

The First National Bank of Elmer (the "Bank") operates under a national bank charter and provides a complete line of business and personal banking products. The Bank operates through its six full-service offices located in Cumberland, Gloucester and Salem counties in New Jersey, including its main office located at 10 South Main Street, Elmer, New Jersey. The majority of the Bank's activities are with customers located within Southern New Jersey. The Bank does not have any significant concentrations in any one industry or with any one customer.

The Bank faces significant competition in attracting deposits and originating loans. Our most direct competition for deposits historically has come from the many financial institutions operating in our market area, including commercial banks, savings banks, savings and loan associations and credit unions, and, to a lesser extent, from other financial service companies, such as brokerage firms and insurance companies. As a national bank, the Bank is subject to regulation by the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and is periodically examined by such regulatory authorities. As a consequence of the regulation of commercial banking activities, the Bank's business is particularly susceptible to future federal legislation and regulations.

Basis of Financial Statement Presentation

The accounting and reporting policies of the Corporation conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). A summary of significant accounting and reporting policies applied in the presentation of the accompanying consolidated financial statements follows.

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Elmer Bancorp, Inc. and its wholly owned subsidiaries, The First National Bank of Elmer and First Elmer Investment Corporation. Since these financial statements are presented on a consolidated basis, the term "Corporation" as used herein may refer to Elmer Bancorp, Inc. individually as a bank holding company or inclusive of consolidated subsidiaries. All significant inter-company balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. Certain prior period amounts may have been reclassified to conform to current year presentations. Such reclassifications had no effect on consolidated shareholders' equity or consolidated net income. In the opinion of management, all accounting entries and adjustments, including normal recurring accruals, necessary for a fair presentation of the financial position and the results of operations for the periods presented have been made. Events occurring subsequent to the date of the balance sheet have been evaluated for potential recognition or disclosure in the consolidated financial statements through the date of the issuance of the consolidated financial statements.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities as of the date of the statement of financial condition and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Material estimates that are particularly susceptible to significant change in the near term relate to the determination of the allowance for loan losses, fair value measurements, the valuation of other real estate owned, measurement of the defined benefit plan obligation, and the calculation of deferred tax assets.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For the purpose of reporting the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows, the Corporation considers cash and cash equivalents to include cash on hand, amounts due from banks, and interest-bearing bank balances with other institutions with original maturities of 90 days or less, and Federal funds sold.

Investment Securities

The Bank classifies investment securities as either available-for-sale ("AFS") or held-to-maturity ("HTM"). Investment securities classified as AFS are carried at fair value with unrealized gains and losses excluded from earnings and reported in a separate component of equity, net of related income tax effects. Investment securities classified as HTM are carried at cost, adjusted for amortization of premium and accretion of discount over the term of the related investments, using the interest method. Investment securities are classified as HTM when management has the positive intent and ability to hold them to maturity. Gains and losses on sales of investment securities are recognized upon realization utilizing the specific identification method. Declines in the fair value of HTM and AFS securities below their cost that are deemed to be other-than-temporary are reflected in earnings as realized losses. Gains and losses on the sale of securities are recorded on the trade date and are determined using the specific identification method. See Note 2 and Note 3 for additional information.

Other-Than-Temporary Impairments on Available-for-Sale Securities

One of the significant estimates related to AFS securities is the evaluation of investments for other-than-temporary impairments. If a determination is made that a debt security is other-than-temporarily impaired, the Bank will estimate the amount of the unrealized loss that is attributable to credit factors and all other noncredit related factors. The credit related component will be recognized as an other-than-temporary impairment charge in noninterest income as a component of gain (loss) on securities, net. The noncredit related component will be recorded as an adjustment to accumulated other comprehensive income, net of tax.

The evaluation of securities for impairments is a quantitative and qualitative process, which is subject to risks and uncertainties and is intended to determine whether declines in the fair value of investments should be recognized in current period earnings. The risk and uncertainties include changes in general economic conditions, the issuer's financial condition and/or future prospects, the effects of changes in interest rates or credit spreads, and the expected recovery period.

On a quarterly basis, the Bank evaluates the securities portfolio for other-than-temporary impairment. Securities that are in an unrealized loss position are reviewed to determine if an other-than-temporary impairment is present based on certain quantitative factors. The primary factors considered in evaluating whether a decline in value is other-than-temporary include: (a) the length of time and extent to which the fair value has been less than cost or amortized cost and the expected recovery period of the security, (b) the financial condition, credit rating, and future prospects of the issuer, (c) whether the debtor is current on contractually obligated interest and principal payments, and (d) whether the Bank intends to sell the security and whether it is more likely than not that the Bank will not be required to sell the security. At December 31, 2020, the Bank concluded that unrealized losses on available-for-sale securities were only temporarily impaired.

Restricted Stock

The Bank owns restricted stock investments in the Federal Home Loan Bank of New York (FHLB), the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia (FRB), and the Atlantic Community Bankers Bank (ACBB). These restricted stocks are reflected on the Consolidated Statement of Financial Condition at cost. At December 31, 2020, the Bank held $271,100 in stock at FHLB, $23,700 in stock at FRB, and $80,000 in stock at ACBB. At December 31, 2019, the Bank held $261,200 in stock at FHLB, $23,700 in stock at FRB, and $80,000 in stock at ACBB.

Under the Bank's membership agreement with the FHLB, required stock purchases are based on a percentage of outstanding borrowings and a percentage of unused borrowing capacity and may also include a percentage of assets sold to the FHLB. The stock is bought from and sold to the FHLB based upon its $100 par value.

These restricted stocks do not have a readily determinable fair value and, as such, are classified as restricted investment in bank stock, are carried at cost and evaluated for impairment, as necessary. The restricted stocks' value is determined by the ultimate recoverability of the par value rather than by recognizing temporary declines. The determination of whether the par value will ultimately be recovered is influenced by criteria such as the following: (a) the significance of the decline in net assets of the FHLB as compared to the capital stock amount and the length of time this situation has persisted, (b) commitments by the FHLB to make payments required by law or regulation and the level of such payments in relation to the operating performance, (c) the impact of legislative and regulatory changes on the customer base of the FHLB, and (d) the liquidity position of the FHLB. Management evaluated the restricted stocks and concluded that the restricted stocks were not impaired for the periods presented herein.

Loans

The Bank grants mortgage, commercial, and consumer loans to individuals and businesses. A substantial portion of the loan portfolio is represented by mortgage loans throughout the Southern New Jersey region. The ability of the Bank's debtors to honor their contracts is dependent upon the real estate and general economic conditions in this area.

Loans receivable that management has the intent and ability to hold for the foreseeable future, or until maturity or pay-off, generally are reported at their outstanding principal balances adjusted for any charge-offs, net of unearned discount, allowance for credit losses and unearned loan fees. Unearned discounts on discounted loans are recognized as income over the contractual term of the loans using a method that approximates the interest method. For all other loans, interest is accrued daily on the outstanding principal balances. Loan origination fees are deferred and recognized as an adjustment of the yield on the related loans using the interest method.

The accrual of interest on mortgage, commercial, and consumer loans is discontinued at the time the loan is generally 90 days delinquent unless the credit is well-secured and in the process of collection.

All interest accrued but not collected for loans that are placed on nonaccrual or charged-off is reversed against interest income. The interest on these loans is accounted for on the cash basis or cost-recovery method, depending on management's assessment of the collectability of principal and interest, until qualifying for return to accrual. Loans are returned to accrual status when all the principal and interest amounts contractually due are brought current and future payments are reasonably assured.

Allowance for Loan Losses

The allowance for loan losses is established through a provision for loan losses charged to earnings. Loan losses are charged against the allowance for loan losses when management believes that collectability of the principal is unlikely. Subsequent recoveries, if any, are credited to the allowance.

The allowance for loan losses is evaluated on a quarterly basis by management and is based upon management's periodic review of the collectability of the loans in light of historical experience, the nature and volume of the loan portfolio, adverse situations that may affect the borrower's ability to repay, estimated value of any underlying collateral, and prevailing economic conditions.

In determining the level of the allowance, the Bank segments the loan portfolio into various loan segments as follows:

- Consumer
- Residential real estate
- Commercial real estate
- Commercial
- Construction and development.

The loan portfolio is further segmented by class for the purposes of monitoring delinquency status and risk rating (Special Mention, Substandard not Impaired, Substandard Impaired). Classes include the separation of the commercial real estate segment into construction and development, non-owner occupied, and owner occupied.

The allowance for loan losses consists of specific and general components and, at times, it may include an unallocated component. The specific component relates to impaired loans, which consist of commercial, commercial mortgage, commercial construction, and residential mortgage loans for which it is probable that the Bank will not be able to collect all amounts due according to the contractual terms of the loan agreement. The Bank individually evaluates such loans for impairment and does not aggregate these loans by major risk classifications. The amount of impairment for these types of impaired loans is determined by the difference between the present value of the expected cash flows related to the loan, using the original interest rate, and its recorded value; or, as a practical matter in the case of a collateral dependent loan, the difference between the fair value of the collateral and the recorded amount of the loans. The general component covers non-impaired loans and is based on historical loss experience adjusted for qualitative factors.

This evaluation is inherently subjective as it requires estimates that are susceptible to significant revision as more information becomes available.

A loan is considered impaired when, based on current information and events, it is probable that the Bank will be unable to collect the scheduled payments of principal or interest when due according to the contractual terms of the loan agreement. Factors considered by management in determining impairment include payment status, collateral value, and the probability of collecting scheduled principal and interest payments when due. Loans that experience insignificant payment delays and payment shortfalls generally are not classified as impaired. Management determines the significance of payment delays and payment shortfalls on a case-by-case basis, taking into consideration all of the circumstances surrounding the loan and the borrower, including the length of the delay, the reasons for the delay, the borrower's prior payment record, and the amount of the shortfall in relation to the principal and interest owed. Impairment is measured on a loan-by-loan basis, generally at the fair value of the underlying collateral if the loan is collateral dependent. See Note 4 and Note 5 for additional information on the loan portfolio and the allowance for loan losses.

Troubled Debt Restructuring (TDR)

Troubled debt restructurings occur when a creditor, for economic or legal reasons related to a debtor's financial condition, grants a concession to the debtor that it would not otherwise consider, such as:

- Reduction of the stated interest rate
- Extension of the maturity date or dates at a stated interest rate lower than the current market rate for new debt with similar risk
- Reduction of the face amount or maturity amount of the debt as stated in the instrument or other agreement

A concession does not include an insignificant delay or shortfall in contractually required principal or interest payments, which may arise depending on specific facts and circumstances from a borrower's temporary operational downturns or seasonal delays.

Segment Reporting

As a community-oriented financial institution, substantially all of the Bank's operations involve the delivery of loan and deposit products to customers. The Bank makes operating decisions and assesses performance based on an ongoing review of these community banking operations, which constitute the only operating segment for financial reporting purposes.

Bank-Owned Life Insurance

The Bank invests in bank-owned life insurance (BOLI) on a chosen group of employees. The policies were purchased to help offset the increase in the costs of various fringe benefit plans, including healthcare. The Bank is the owner of the pre-retirement split-benefit policies and in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 325 "Investments in Insurance Contracts", the amount recorded is the cash surrender value, which is the amount realizable. Income from the increase in cash surrender value of the policies is included in noninterest income on the Consolidated Statements of Income. In the event of the death of an insured individual under these policies, the Bank would receive a death benefit which would be recorded as non-interest income.

Mortgage Servicing Rights (MSR)

The Bank recognizes as a separate asset the rights to service mortgage loans, whether those rights are acquired through purchase or loan origination activities. MSR are amortized in proportion to and over the estimated period of net servicing income. The estimated fair value of MSR is determined through a discounted analysis of future cash flows, incorporating numerous assumptions including servicing income, servicing costs, market discount rates, prepayment speeds, and default rates. Impairment of the MSR is assessed on the fair value of those rights with any impairment recognized as a component of loan servicing fee income. The balance of the fee asset at December 31, 2020 and 2019 was $72,925 and $87,022, respectively.

Other Real Estate Owned ("OREO")

Real estate acquired as a result of foreclosure (including in-substance foreclosures), or by deed in lieu of foreclosure is classified as OREO and is initially recorded at the estimated fair market value, less the estimated cost to sell, at the date of foreclosure, thereby establishing a new cost basis. If the fair value declines subsequent to foreclosure, an OREO write-down is recorded through expense and the OREO balance is lowered to reflect the current fair value. Operating costs after acquisition are expensed. The historical average holding period for such properties is generally less than two years. See Note 7 for additional information.

Premises and Equipment

Land is carried at cost. Buildings, improvements and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation of equipment is computed on the straight-line method over the assets' estimated useful lives. Buildings and improvements are depreciated over the estimated useful life of the improvement. The estimated useful lives for calculating depreciation are as follows:

	Years
Buildings and improvements	7–39
Furniture, fixtures and equipment	3–12
Computer equipment	3–5

Maintenance and repairs are charged to operations as incurred. The cost and accumulated depreciation of the premises and equipment retired or sold are eliminated from the property accounts at the time of retirement or sale, and the resulting gain or loss, if applicable, is reflected in current operations. See Note 6 for additional information.

Transfers of Financial Assets

Transfers of financial assets are accounted for as sales when control over the assets has been surrendered. Control over transferred assets is deemed to be surrendered when: (1) the assets have been isolated from the Corporation, (2) the transferee obtains the right (free of conditions that constrain it from taking advantage of that right) to pledge or exchange the transferred assets; and (3) the Corporation does not maintain effective control over the transferred assets through an agreement to repurchase them before their maturity or the ability to unilaterally cause the holder to return the specific asset.

Income Taxes

Income taxes are provided for the tax effects of transactions reported in the financial statements and consist of taxes currently due and deferred taxes related to temporary differences between book and tax bases of various accounts. Deferred tax assets and liabilities represent the future tax return consequences of those differences, which will either be taxable or deductible when the assets and liabilities are recovered or settled.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are reflected at income tax rates applicable to the period. As changes in tax laws or rates are enacted, deferred tax assets and liabilities are adjusted through the provision for income taxes. The Corporation files a consolidated federal tax return and individual component state tax returns as required by the current state tax code. See Note 12 for additional information.

Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are charged to expense in the year incurred. Advertising expenses totaled $73,929 and $90,718 for the years ended December 31, 2020 and December 31, 2019, respectively.

Off–Balance–Sheet Financial Instruments

Credit-related financial instruments. In the ordinary course of business, the Bank has entered into commitments to extend credit, including commercial letters of credit and standby letters of credit. Such financial instruments are recorded when they are funded. See Note 10 for additional information.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The fair value of a financial instrument is the current amount that would be exchanged between willing parties, other than in a forced liquidation. Fair value is best determined based upon quoted market prices. However, in many instances, there are no quoted market prices for the Corporation's various financial instruments. In cases where quoted market prices are not available, fair values are based on estimates using present value or other valuation techniques. See Note 14 and Note 15 for additional information.

Retirement Plans

401(k) plan. Employees who are at least 21 years of age may elect to make "before tax" 401(k) contributions to the plan between 1% and 100% of compensation, up to $19,500. Eligibility is immediate upon hire. Employees who are at least 50 years of age may make additional "catch-up" contributions up to $6,500. The Bank will match 50% up to 6% of compensation deferred by eligible employees. Contributions vest based on the schedule of the plan. See Note 16 for additional information.

Defined benefit post-retirement plan. The Bank has an unfunded defined benefit post-retirement plan that provides life and health insurance benefits to retired individuals. Employees who retire at age 65 or older with a minimum of 25 years of service are eligible for payment of 100 percent of basic health care benefit premiums. The level of benefits paid will continue at the same level as prior to retirement (i.e., employee/spouse coverage). Additionally, optional coverage may be obtained at the expense of the former employee. The plan is reviewed annually and may be modified or terminated at the discretion of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors voted to change the plan effective January 1, 2009, so that only current retirees and current employees hired before June 30, 1984, who retire at age 65 or after would be eligible under the medical plan provision and only current retirees would continue to receive the life insurance plan provision. Future retirees would no longer be eligible. See Note 16 for additional information.

Restricted stock awards. Expense on restricted stock awards is based on the fair value of the shares on the grant date and is expensed on a straight-line basis over the service period.

Treasury Stock

Stock held in the Treasury by the Corporation is accounted for using the cost method, which treats stock held in treasury as a reduction of total shareholders' equity. As shares of treasury stock are reissued, the shares are issued using the average cost basis of the shares in the treasury at the time of issuance.

Earnings per Common Share

Earnings per common share is computed by dividing net income available to common shareholders by the weighted-average common shares outstanding.

Comprehensive Income

Accounting principles generally require that recognized revenue, expenses, gains, and losses be included in net income. Although certain changes in assets and liabilities are reported as a separate component of the equity section of the Consolidated Statement of Financial Condition, such items, along with net income, are components of comprehensive income. See Note 18 for additional information.

Revenue Recognition

Under Topic ASC 606, the Bank applies the following steps when recognizing revenue from contracts with customers unless the revenue is related to a financial instrument and is scoped out of Topic 606: (i) identify the contract, (ii) identify the performance obligations, (iii) determine the transaction price, (iv) allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations and (v) recognize revenue when a performance obligation is satisfied. The Bank's contracts with customers are generally short term in nature, typically due within one year or less or cancellable by the Bank or the Bank's customer upon a short notice period. Performance obligations for the Bank's customer contracts are generally satisfied at a single point in time, typically when the transaction is complete, or over time. The Bank typically receives payment from customers and recognizes revenue concurrent with the satisfaction of our performance obligations. In most cases, this occurs within a single financial reporting period. For payments received in advance of the satisfaction of performance obligations, revenue recognition is deferred until such time as the performance obligations have been satisfied. In cases where the Bank has not received payment despite satisfaction of our performance obligations, an estimate of the amount due in the period our performance obligations have been satisfied is accrued.

Under ASC Topic 606, management determined that the primary sources of revenue emanating from interest and dividend income on loans and investments along with noninterest revenue resulting from investment securities gains, loans servicing, gains on loans sold and earnings on BOLI are not within scope of this Topic. The main sources of noninterest income within the scope of the standard are service charges on deposit accounts and other service charges and fees. The Bank has contracts with its deposit customers where fees are charged if certain parameters are not met. These agreements can be cancelled at any time by either the Bank or the deposit customer. Revenue from these transactions is recognized on a monthly basis as the Company has an unconditional right to the fee consideration. The Bank also has transaction fees related to specific transactions or activities resulting from a customer request or activity that include overdraft fees, online banking fees, interchange fees, ATM fees and other transaction fees. All of these fees are attributable to specific performance obligations of the Bank where the revenue is recognized at a defined point in time upon the completion of the requested service/transaction.

Gains and losses on the sale of OREO are recognized at the completion of the property sale when the buyer obtains control of the real estate and all the performance obligations of the Bank have been satisfied. Evidence of the buyer obtaining control of the asset include transfer of the property title, physical possession of the asset, and the buyer obtaining control of the risks and rewards related to the asset. If the Bank agrees to provide financing to facilitate the sale of OREO, additional analysis is performed to ensure that the contract for sale identifies the buyer and seller, the asset to be transferred, payment terms, and that the contract has a true commercial substance and that collection of amounts due from the buyer are reasonable. In situations where financing terms are not reflective of current market terms, the transaction price is discounted impacting the gain/loss and the carrying value of the asset. The Bank does not make it a standard practice to provide the financing for OREO sales.

The Bank determined that the level of disaggregation of revenue as reported on the Consolidated Statement of Income provided a sufficient level of detail in order to properly analyze the significant revenue streams of the Bank and therefore no further disaggregation of any revenue streams within the scope of ASC 606 was considered to be necessary.

NOTE 2 - INVESTMENT SECURITIES

The amortized cost, gross unrealized gains and losses, and fair values of investment securities are as follows as of December 31, 2020 and 2019:

State and municipal securities and mortgage-backed securities with carrying values of $5,332,576 and $8,349,886 at December 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively, were pledged to secure public deposits and for other purposes required or permitted by laws.

At December 31, 2020, there were no investments held-to-maturity.

The following is a schedule of maturities of investment securities available-for-sale at December 31, 2020. Expected maturities may differ from contractual maturities because borrowers may have the right to call or prepay obligations with or without call or prepayment penalties.

	Available-for-Sale
	Amortized Cost	Fair Value
Due within one year	$ -	$ -
Due after one year through five years	1,773,498	1,790,251
Due after five years through ten years	1,700,914	1,740,325
Due after ten years	4,838,565	4,941,807
Total	$ 8,312,977	$ 8,472,383

NOTE 2 - INVESTMENT SECURITIES (Continued)

The Bank had no gross realized gains or losses recognized on the sale of investment securities during the years ended December 31, 2020 and December 31, 2019. No investment securities were transferred between classifications during 2020 or 2019.

NOTE 3 – UNREALIZED LOSSES ON INVESTMENT SECURITIES

The following table shows securities gross unrealized losses and fair value aggregated by security category and length of time that individual securities have been in a continuous unrealized loss position, at December 31, 2020 and 2019:

	December 31, 2020
	Less than Twelve Months		Twelve Months or Greater		Total
	Fair Value	Gross Unrealized Losses	Fair Value	Gross Unrealized Losses	Fair Value	Gross Unrealized Losses

The Bank reviews its position quarterly and has asserted at December 31, 2020, the declines outlined in the above table represent temporary declines and the Bank does not intend to sell these securities nor is it more likely that the Bank will be required to sell these securities before recovery of their cost basis, which may be at maturity. There were 6 positions that were temporarily impaired at December 31, 2020. The Bank has concluded that the unrealized losses disclosed above are not other than temporary, but are the result of interest rate changes, sector credit ratings changes, or company-specific ratings changes that are not expected to result in the non-collection of principal and interest during the period.

NOTE 4 – LOANS

Loans receivable consist of the following:

During 2020, the Company participated in the Paycheck Protection Program ("PPP"), administered directly by the U.S. SBA. The PPP provides loans to small businesses who were affected by economic conditions as a result of COVID-19 to provide cash-flow assistance to employers who maintain their payroll (including healthcare and certain related expenses), mortgage interest, rent, leases, utilities and interest on existing debt during the COVID-19 emergency. As of December 31, 2020, the Company had outstanding principal balances of $24.7 million. The PPP loans are fully guaranteed by the SBA and may be eligible for forgiveness by the SBA to the extent that the proceeds are used to cover eligible payroll costs, interest costs, rent, and utility costs over a period of up to 24 weeks after the loan is made as long as certain conditions are met regarding employee retention and compensation levels. PPP loans deemed eligible for forgiveness by the SBA will be repaid by the SBA to the Company. PPP loans are included in the Commercial loan category.

In accordance with the SBA terms and conditions on these PPP loans, the Company received approximately $1.3 million in fees associated with the processing of 251 loans. Upon funding of the loans, these fees were deferred and will be amortized over the life of the loan as an adjustment to yield in accordance with FASB ASC 310-20-25-2.

Year-end nonaccrual loans, segregated by class of loans, were as follows:

	At December 31,
	2020	2019
Commercial	$ -	$ -
Commercial real estate:
Non-owner occupied	201,823	180,101

The following tables represent credit exposures by internally assigned grades as of December 31, 2020 and December 31, 2019 for the commercial loan portfolio. The grading analysis evaluates the capability of the borrower to repay the contractual obligations of the loan agreements as scheduled. The Bank's internal credit risk grading system is based on experiences with similarly graded loans.

The Bank's internally assigned grades are as follows: "Pass" loans are protected by the current net worth and paying capacity of the obligor or by the value of the underlying collateral. "Special Mention" loans have a potential weakness or risk exists, which could cause a more serious problem if not corrected. "Substandard" loans have a well-defined weakness based on objective evidence and are characterized by the distinct possibility that the Bank will sustain some loss if the deficiencies are not corrected. "Doubtful" loans have all the weaknesses inherent in a substandard asset. In addition, these weaknesses make collection or liquidation in full highly questionable and improbable, based on existing circumstances. "Loss" loans are considered uncollectible, or of such value that continuance as an asset is not warranted.

As of December 31, 2020, there are no commitments to lend additional funds to any borrower whose loan terms have been modified in a TDR. As of December 31, 2020, the Bank did not have any loan modifications classified as TDR which subsequently defaulted. The allowance for loan losses related to TDRs totaled $93,303 at December 31, 2020 and $107,357 at December 31, 2019.

For the year ended December 31, 2020, over 215 of the Company's customers had requested loan payment deferrals or payments of interest only on loans totaling $94.4 million. In accordance with Section 4013 of the CARES Act and the interagency guidance issued on April 7, 2020, these short-term deferrals are not considered troubled debt restructurings. As of December 31, 2020, none of the Company's customers remained in deferment and all have resumed contractual monthly payments.

NOTE 5 – ALLOWANCE FOR LOAN LOSSES

Depreciation expense for the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019 amounted to $257,748 and $261,346, respectively.

NOTE 7 – OTHER REAL ESTATE OWNED

Other real estate owned ("OREO") totaled $173,285 and $858,585 at December 31, 2020 and December 31, 2019, respectively. At December 31, 2020 residential real estate loans in process of foreclosure totaled $460,251.

NOTE 8 - DEPOSITS

The aggregate amount of time deposits in denominations of $250,000 or more at December 31, 2020 and 2019 was approximately $7,528,531 and $6,160,979, respectively.

At December 31, 2020, the scheduled maturities of CDs and other time deposits are as follows:

2021	$ 33,729,394
2022	12,634,180
2023	2,332,850
2024	1,141,312
2025	1,806,042
Total	$ 51,643,778

NOTE 9 – SHORT-TERM BORROWINGS

The Bank entered into continuing lending agreements regarding advances with the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia, the Federal Home Loan Bank of New York, and Atlantic Community Bankers Bank.

Under the Federal Reserve Bank agreement, the Bank can borrow overnight advances at the Federal Reserve discount window. Advances are payable on demand and include interest at the rate in effect when the advance is made. In addition, the Bank is required to pledge collateral as agreed upon. As of December 31, 2020, and 2019, the collateral value of the real estate loans pledged was $54,261,735 and $51,823,926, respectively, with no outstanding advances.

Under the Federal Home Loan Bank agreement, the Bank can borrow overnight advances for an unlimited length of time. There is no mandatory pay down to zero within a certain number of days, but acknowledgment must be made daily to maintain a balance. As of December 31, 2020, and 2019, the collateral value of the real estate loans pledged was $1,905,120 and $1,950,545, respectively, with no outstanding advances. The Bank is eligible to borrow, based on pledged collateral, up to 30 percent of its total assets. As of December 31, 2020, the Bank has a maximum borrowing capacity with the Federal Home Loan Bank of approximately $99,125,011.

Under the Atlantic Community Bankers Bank agreement, the Bank can borrow overnight advances up to $4,000,000 with a mandatory pay down to zero within 14 days, with no collateral required. As of December 31, 2020 and December 31, 2019, the Bank had no outstanding advances.

NOTE 10 – OFF-BALANCE SHEET ACTIVITIES

Credit-Related Financial Instruments. To meet the financing needs of its customers in the normal course of business, the Bank is a party to financial instruments with off-balance-sheet risk. These financial instruments include commitments to extend credit, standby letters of credit, and commercial letters of credit. Such commitments involve, to varying degrees, elements of credit and interest rate risk in excess of the amount recognized in the Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition.

The Bank's exposure to credit loss is represented by the contractual amount of these commitments. The Bank follows the same credit policies in making commitments and conditional obligations as it does for on-balance sheet instruments. Total reserves for off-balance sheet commitments at December 31, 2020 and 2019 were $40,000 which are included in accrued expenses and other liabilities in the Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition.

The following financial instruments were outstanding whose contract amounts represent credit risk:

	At December 31,
	2020	2019
Bounce overdraft account commitments	$ 1,889,776	$ 2,010,922
Unfunded commitments and lines of credit	33,527,969	28,000,134
Commercial and standby letter of credit	1,127,901	1,258,901
Total	$36,545,646	$31,269,957

Commitments to extend credit are agreements to lend to a customer as long as there are no violations of any condition established in the contract. Commitments generally have fixed expiration dates or other termination clauses and may require payment of a fee. Since many of the commitments are expected to expire without being drawn upon, the total commitment amounts do not necessarily represent future cash requirements. The amount of collateral obtained, if it is deemed necessary by the Bank upon extension of credit, is based on management's credit evaluation of the customer.

Unfunded commitments, available commercial lines of credit, and overdraft protection agreements are commitments for possible future extensions of credit to existing customers. These lines of credit may be either unsecured or contain collateral. At December 31, 2020 and 2019, the Bank's unfunded commitment total included commitments to provide overdraft protection totaling $1,889,776 and $2,010,922 respectively. These commitments are included above to be consistent with regulatory requirements.

Commercial and standby letters of credit are conditional commitments issued by the Bank to guarantee the performance of a customer to a third party. Those letters of credit are primarily issued to support public and private borrowing arrangements. Most letters of credit have expiration dates within one year. The credit risk involved in issuing letters of credit is essentially the same as that involved in extending loan facilities to customers. The Bank holds collateral supporting those commitments for which collateral is deemed necessary.

The Bank was not required to perform on any financial guarantees during the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019. The Bank did not incur any losses on its commitments during years ended December 31, 2020 or 2019.

NOTE 11 – SIGNIFICANT GROUP CONCENTRATIONS OF CREDIT RISK

The majority of the Bank's business activity is with customers located within the southern region of the State of New Jersey and the majority of investments in municipal securities involve governmental entities within the Bank's market area.

NOTE 12 - INCOME TAXES

The provision for income taxes consists of:

	For the Years Ended December 31, 2020	2019
Federal:
Current	$ 310,298	$ 679,665
Deferred	9,655	(143,962)

Deferred	(169,678)	(33,750)
	208,147	263,597
Total	$ 528,100	$ 799,300

NOTE 12 - INCOME TAXES (Continued)

The tax effects of deductible and taxable temporary differences that give rise to significant portions of the deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities, are as follows:

	At December 31,
	2020	2019
Deferred tax assets (liabilities):
Allowance for loan losses	$1,253,970	$1,003,622
Deferred loan fees	128,472	124,622
Nonaccrual loan interest	14,097	11,758
Post retirement benefits	125,102	164,361
Accumulated depreciation	(31,248)	24,623
Net unrealized gain on securities available-for-sale	(33,475)	10,596
Other	(18,644)	(11,163)
Net deferred tax assets	$1,438,274	$1,328,419

No valuation allowance was established at December 31, 2020, in view of certain tax strategies, coupled with the anticipated future taxable income as evidenced by the Corporation's earnings potential.

The following is a reconciliation of the Corporation's effective income tax rate:

	For the Years Ended December 31,
	2020		2019
	Amount	% of Pre-tax Income	Amount	% of Pre-tax Income
Provision at statutory rate	$ 419,431	21.0%	$ 601,854	21.0%
State income tax expense	163,451	8.2%	244,029	8.5%
Tax exempt interest	(17,619)	-0.9%	(20,963)	-0.7%
BOLI income	(38,340)	-1.9%	(29,148)	-1.0%
Other, net	1,177	0.1%	3,528	0.1%
Actual income tax expense and effective rate	$ 528,100	26.5%	$ 799,300	27.9%

Management evaluated the Corporation's tax position and concluded that the Corporation had taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustments to the financial statements to comply with the provisions of this guidance. Consequently, no accrual for interest and penalties was deemed necessary for the year ended December 31, 2020. The Corporation files tax returns in the U.S. Federal jurisdiction and the State of New Jersey. Generally, the Corporation is no longer subject to income tax examinations by the U.S. federal tax authorities for years before December 31, 2017, and by New Jersey tax authorities for years before December 31, 2016.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 13 – RELATED PARTIES

The Bank has transactions in the ordinary course of business with directors, principal officers, their immediate families, and affiliated companies in which they are principal stockholders (commonly referred to as related parties), on the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with others. The Bank held deposits of $3,301,784 and $1,428,951 for related parties at December 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively. During 2020 and 2019, interest paid by the Bank on these deposits amounted to $4,255 and $3,753, respectively.

A summary of the activity on related-party loans, comprised of directors and executive officers and their related companies, consist of the following:

	For the Years Ended December 31,
	2020	2019
Balance at beginning of year	$ 348,708	$ 1,265,330
Additions	1,600,000	2,115,000

Other (1)	-	(640,139)
Balance at end of year	$ 247,443	$ 348,708

(1) Other represents the December 31, 2018 balances of a retired director.

NOTE 14 – FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Cash and due from banks, interest-bearing deposits with other institutions, Federal funds sold, investment in interest-earning time deposits, bank owned life insurance, restricted stock and accrued interest: The carrying amounts of these financial instruments approximate their fair value.

The estimated fair values and related carrying amounts of the Bank's remaining financial instruments not carried at fair value on a recurring basis are as follows:

	At December 31, 2020
	Carrying Value	Fair Value	Level I	Level II	Level III

NOTE 15 – FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENT

The following disclosures show the hierarchal disclosure framework associated with the level of pricing observations utilized in measuring assets and liabilities at fair value. The three broad levels of pricing observations are as follows:

Level I: Quoted prices are available in active markets for identical assets or liabilities as of the reported date.

Level II: Pricing inputs are other than the quoted prices in active markets, which are either directly or indirectly observable as of the reported date. The nature of these assets and liabilities includes items for which quoted prices are available but traded less frequently and items that are fair-valued using other financial instruments, the parameters of which can be directly observed.

Level III: Valuations derived from valuation techniques in which one or more significant inputs or significant value drivers are unobservable.

This hierarchy requires the use of observable market data when available.

The fair value of investment securities available-for-sale is equal to the available quoted market price. If no quoted market price is available, fair value is estimated using the quoted market price for similar securities.

The Bank has measured impairment on impaired loans generally based on the fair value of the loan's collateral. Fair value is generally determined based upon independent third-party appraisals of the properties. In some cases, management may adjust the appraised value due to the age of the appraisal, changes in market conditions, or observable deterioration of the property since the appraisal was completed. Additionally, management makes estimates about expected costs to sell the property, which are also included in the net realizable value. If the fair value of the collateral-dependent loan is less than the carrying amount of the loan, a specific reserve for the loan is made in the allowance for loan losses or a charge-off is taken to reduce the loan to the fair value of the collateral (less estimated selling costs) and the loan is included in the table above as a Level III measurement. If the fair value of the collateral exceeds the carrying amount of the loan, then the loan is not included in the table below as it is not currently being carried at its fair value. At December 31, 2020 there were no collateral-dependent impaired loans that had specific reserves or that had been written down to their fair value during the year. At December 31, 2019, the fair values shown below exclude estimated selling costs of $49,000.

OREO properties are recorded at the estimated fair market value, less the estimated cost to sell, at the date of foreclosure. Fair market value is determined as described above.

The following tables present the assets reported on the Consolidated Statement of Financial Condition at their fair value as of December 31, 2020 and 2019, by level within the fair value hierarchy. Financial assets and liabilities are classified in their entirety based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement.

Restricted Stock Plan

The Company maintains a Restricted Stock Plan (the Plan) whereby certain employees are eligible to receive awards of restricted stock based upon performance related requirements. Awards granted under the Plan are in the form of the Company's common stock and may be subject to certain vesting requirements including in the case of employees, continuous employment, or service with the Company. The Plan assists the Company in attracting, retaining, and motivating employees to make substantial contributions to the success of the Company and to increase the emphasis on the use of equity as a key component of compensation. The following table details the vesting, awarding, and forfeiting of unearned restricted shares during 2020:

	Shares	Weighted Average Cost
Nonvested Shares, Beginning of Year	1,100	$ 18.25
Granted	1,250	13.00
Forfeited	-	-
Vested	-	-
Nonvested Shares, End of Year	2,350	$ 15.46

Compensation cost related to restricted stock is recognized based on the market price of the stock at the grant date over the vesting period. Compensation expense related to restricted stock was $10,754 and $5,855 for the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively. The per share weighted-average grant-date fair value of restricted shares granted during 2020 and 2019 was $18.25 and $13.00, respectively. At December 31, 2020, the total compensation cost related to nonvested awards that has not yet been recognized was $19,716, which is expected to be recognized over the next 3 years.

NOTE 17 - REGULATORY MATTERS

Loans

Federal law prevents the Corporation from borrowing from the Bank unless the loans are secured by specific collateral. Further, such secured loans are limited in amount to 10 percent of the Bank's common stock and capital surplus. Loans or advances are limited to 15 percent of the Corporation's capital stock and surplus.

Dividends

The Bank is subject to a dividend restriction that generally limits the amount of dividends that can be paid by a national bank. Prior approval of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC) is required if the total of all dividends declared by a national bank in any calendar year exceeds net profits, as defined for the year, combined with its retained net profits for the two preceding calendar years less any required transfers to surplus.

At December 31, 2020 the Bank's retained earnings available for the payment of dividends prior to regulatory approval was $2,683,619 plus 2021 net profits retained up to the date of the dividend declaration.

Capital Requirements

Banks and bank holding companies are subject to regulatory capital requirements administered by federal banking agencies. Capital adequacy guidelines and, additionally for banks, prompt corrective action regulations, involve quantitative measures of assets, liabilities, and certain off-balance sheet items calculated under regulatory accounting practices. Capital amounts and classifications are also subject to qualitative judgments by regulators. Failure to meet capital requirements can initiate regulatory action. Management believes as of December 31, 2020 and December 31, 2019, the Corporation and the Bank meet all capital adequacy requirements to which it is subject.

The Bank is subject to various regulatory capital requirements administered by the federal banking agencies. Failure to meet minimum capital requirements can initiate certain mandatory, and possibly, additional discretionary actions by regulators that, if undertaken, could have a direct material effect on the Bank's financial statements. Under capital adequacy guidelines and the regulatory framework for prompt corrective action, the Bank must meet specific capital guidelines that involve quantitative measures of the Bank's assets, liabilities and certain off-balance sheet items as calculated under regulatory accounting practices. The Bank's capital amounts, and classification are also subject to qualitative judgments by the regulators about components, risk weightings and other factors.

In addition to the capital requirements, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation Improvement Act (FDICIA) established five capital categories ranging from "well capitalized" to "critically undercapitalized". Should any institution fail to meet the requirements to be considered "adequately capitalized", it would become subject to a series of increasingly restrictive regulatory actions.

As of December 31, 2020, the Corporation and the Bank were categorized as well-capitalized under the regulatory framework for prompt corrective action. Quantitative measures established by regulation to ensure capital adequacy require the Corporation and the Bank to maintain minimum amounts and ratios (set forth in the table below) of Total risk based capital, Common Equity Tier I (CET I) risk based capital, and Tier I risk based capital (as defined in the regulations) to risk weighted assets (as defined), and of Tier I leverage ratio (as defined) to average assets (as defined).

(2) Amounts in parenthesis indicate credits.

(3)There were no reclassifications for the year ended December 31, 2019.

NOTE 19 – RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

COVID-19 Loan Forbearance Programs

Section 4013 of the CARES Act provides that banks may elect not to categorize a loan modification as a TDR if the loan modification is (1) related to COVID-19; (2) executed on a loan that was not more than 30 days past due as of December 31, 2019; and (3) executed between March 1, 2020, and the earlier of (A) 60 days after the date on which the national emergency concerning the novel coronavirus disease (COVID–19) outbreak declared by the President on March 13, 2020, under the National Emergencies Act terminates, or (B) December 31, 2020.

On April 7, 2020, federal banking regulators issued a revised interagency statement that included guidance on their approach for the accounting of loan modifications in light of the economic impact of the COVID-19 pandemic. The guidance interprets current accounting standards and indicates that a lender can conclude that a borrower is not experiencing financial difficulty if short-term modifications are made in response to COVID-19, such as payment deferrals, fee waivers, extensions of repayment terms, or other delays in payment that are insignificant related to the loans in which the borrower is less than 30 days past due on its contractual payments at the time a modification program is implemented.

According to the Interagency Statement on Loan Modifications and Reporting for Financial Institutions Working with Customers Affected by the Coronavirus (Revised) issued by the federal bank regulatory agencies on April 7, 2020, short-term loan modifications not otherwise eligible under Section 4013 that are made on a good faith basis in response to COVID-19 to borrowers who were current prior to any relief are not TDRs. This includes short-term (e.g., six months) modifications such as payment deferrals, fee waivers, extensions of repayment terms, or other delays in payment that are insignificant. See Note 4 for additional information on forbearance loan activity.

In addition, the risk-rating on COVID-19 modified loans did not change, and these loans will not be considered past due until after the deferral period is over and scheduled payments resume. The credit quality of these loans will be reevaluated after the deferral period ends.

NOTE 20 – SUBSEQUENT EVENTS
